

Ashley

This was Ashley's first year as a rider and she came to us being very shy and quiet. We worked on her balance, strength and communication. She has been a joy to work with and to see the steps she has taken this year. She has been working hard with her instructor and team to speak louder so everyone can hear her. Working on her confidence and voice has been a huge thing and she has done wonderfully! When she first came out to Chakota this season, she was very quiet and wouldn't talk to anyone let alone give hugs. End of season she came up to us and gave us all hugs and when she was talking to us she was talking with a lot of confidence and pride! She was very proud of her accomplishments as a rider and in herself, just as we are! We are all very proud of her progress even though she had a short season! Way to go Ashley and we look forward to seeing you again next year! Keep it up cowgirl!
